

every column of  $\beta$  fits one of the response variables, e. g. the temperature at one location